

TEACHER APPRECIATION WEEK

MONDAY, MAY 2 - FRIDAY, MAY 6

Join the INLearning Partnership from Monday, May 2, through Friday, May 6, for live and on-demand events to celebrate Teacher Appreciation Week!

Monday, May 2

Building Meaningful Relationships with Students: 2:30 to 3 p.m. ET.

- Join Brayton Mendenhall, Educator at Ben Davis High School, for a discussion on creating connections with students to influence relationships in the classroom and beyond.

LIVE Teacher Panel - Time Saving Tips for Teachers: 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. ET

- Join some of Indiana's Teachers of the Year for this panel discussion on time management tips that support educators while maintaining student engagement.

Wednesday, May 4

I Brought a Calf to an Urban School: 12:30 to 1 p.m. ET

- Join Jen Yoder, Educator at Goshen High School, for a presentation regarding project-based learning experiences that challenge students and lead to unique, teachable moments.

Friday, May 6

Get Down with Google Slides and Jamboard: 11:15 to 11:45 a.m. ET

- Join Claire Brown, Educator at Mayflower Mill Elementary School, for a session to help K-5 classrooms explore and engage students through meaningful technology lessons.

Follow @INeLearn all week for videos of teachers sharing their favorite education stories!

#INLearningPartner